Dear Roberto,

I have just been told that you received the second-top First in PPE in the entire University. This is a spectacular achievement for which I send my warmest congratulations. I know I speak for the whole Governing Body when I say how truly delighted we are at this outstanding result. As well as its intrinsic value, as a measure of your intellect and application, this result will be of inestimable value to you in your future career, whether this be in academia or in any other field.

May I wish you all possible success in the future and look forward to hearing from time to time how you are getting on in your chosen field and in other equally important areas of your life.

With warmest good wishes,

Yours sincerely,
